

MyLab – Product Update

.....

We're announcing a new way to navigate your MyLab and gain deeper insight into student performance, and we've enhanced the eText experience for your students.

What's Inside?

- 3 New Instructor Home
- 9 New Performance Analytics
- 11 Graphing Enhancements
- 13 eText Enhancements

Everything you need at your fingertips

MyLab gives you complete flexibility over your course, and now with the instructor homepage, the most important and highly used features in the MyLab are one click away.

This June, the default screen when entering your course will be a new homepage that will:

- Reduce the time it takes to set up and navigate MyLab
 - Get you where you need to go quickly
- Allow you to easily discover and implement new MyLab features

New Instructor Home*

The Instructor Home simplifies MyLab navigation.
It's comprised of four tiles:

1. Welcome
2. Gradebook
3. Assignments
4. Enrich your course

Each tile has direct links to the most highly utilized and important features for course administration, so you can get where you need to go in one click.

Available with the majority of MyLab courses*

Enrich Your Course tile

The final tile allows you to easily discover and implement teaching and learning features that meet the needs of your course.

The Enrich Your Course page, accessed from the instructor homepage, provides you with an overview of some of the most important features and a guide to get started using these features quickly.

The screenshot displays the MathXL Instructor Home interface. On the left is a sidebar with navigation options for students and instructors. The main area shows a 'Welcome!' message, a 'Gradebook' section with a donut chart for Week 6 (17% completed), and an 'Assignments' section for Week 6. An 'Enrich your course' tile is at the bottom.

Enrich your course

Find ways to enrich your course with interactive aids and

New performance analytics

Whether you need a snapshot of how your students are performing or you want a deep dive into a specific student's progress, we have you covered. Performance analytics give you the insight you need to make more informed decisions for remediation and improved instruction.

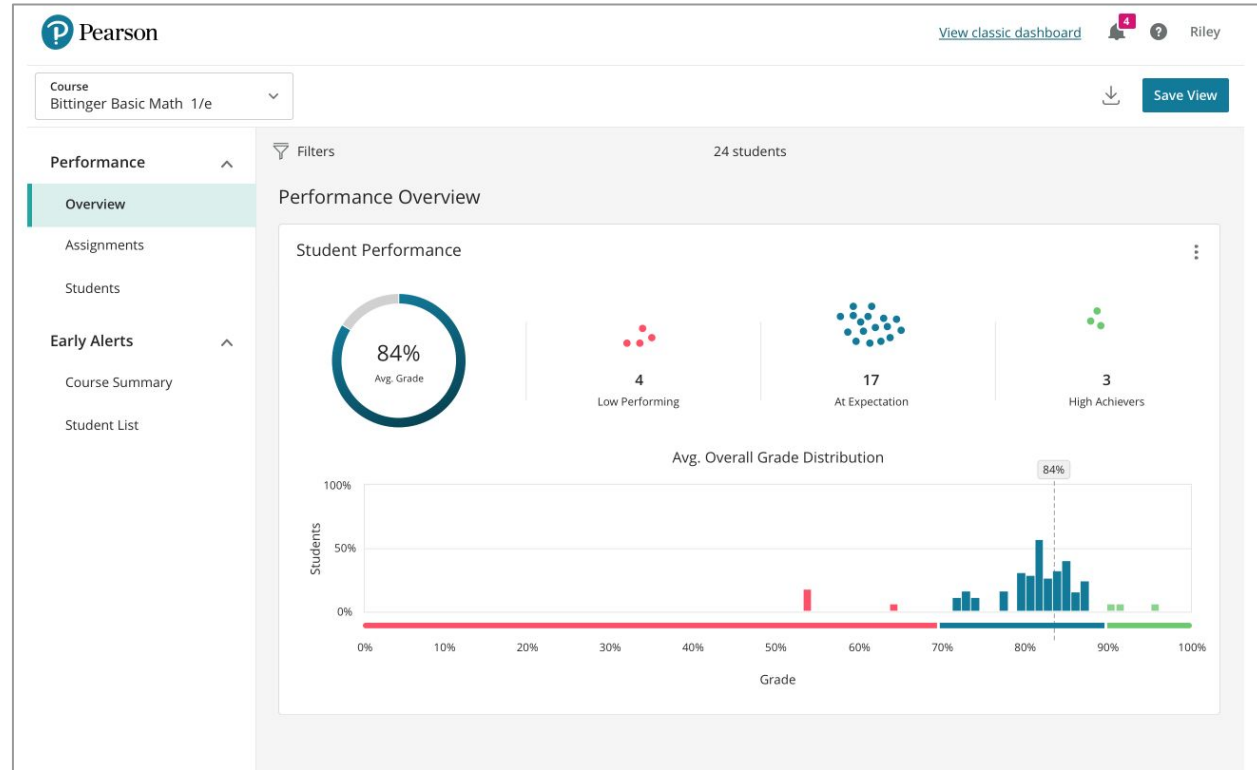

Expected release: mid-August 2018

New student performance analytics

Have a quick glance of the overall course performance, or click on a name to drill down on an individual student performance. Accessed through your gradebook, performance analytics give you:

- Access to new insights into the same location across all of your MyLab courses
- An easy way for instructors to engage directly with students based on insights

Expected release: mid-August 2018

Graphing enhancements

It's now simpler and easier for students to answer problems and demonstrate their learning using graphs.

Graphing updates will impact all MyLab assignments that contain graphing question types.

Graphing

Improvements will be made to graphing capabilities that will help improve the student learning experience. Updates will include:

- Easier to use graphing palette
- Larger graph size

Section 9.3 | Objective: Use these problems to test lines in the SD Grapher.

eText enhancements

The updates to the eText experience for students makes reading and studying from a mobile device or computer better than ever. We've revamped the look and feel of the eText and improved the digital note taking experience to help students stay active in their learning and take effective notes.

eText Enhancements

The eText update includes:

- Syncing of notes across all devices
- A new look for the table of contents
- Improved browser compatibility
- Access to the new eText Notebook

The screenshot displays the eText interface for 'Economics Today, 19/e' by Roger LeRoy Miller. The interface is divided into a sidebar and a main content area. The sidebar, highlighted with a red border, contains a 'Dashboard' link, the title 'Economics Today, 19/e', the author 'Roger LeRoy Miller', an 'Arrange Contents' button, and a 'Contents' tab. Below the tab is a list of chapters: 'Welcome', '1: The Nature of Economics (PART 1: INTRODUCTION)', '2: Scarcity and the World of Trade-Offs', and '3: Demand and Supply'. The main content area shows the title 'Economic Analysis' and a paragraph of text: 'discuss the difference between economics', 'and incentives are central to any decision-making process', 'choices that people will actually make. You also have to', 'you to analyze solutions to each economic problem—', 'w much to study, which courses to take, whether to', 'overnment should provide more grants to universities or', 'will learn in this text is the economic way of thinking.' Below this is another paragraph: 'he power to reach informed judgments about what is', 'course, live your life without the power of economic', 'ramework. Indeed, most people do. Economists believe,', 'help you make better decisions concerning your career,', 'e, and other important matters.' At the bottom, there is a link to 'The Three Basic Economic Questions and Two Opposing Sets of Ans...'.

New eText Notebook

You and your students can create notes independent of eText highlights, making the Notebook a one-stop shop for everything students want to remember and everything you want to share with them.

Notes may also be filtered by chapter or by highlight label type (e.g., Shared Note from Instructor, Questions, Main Ideas).
